Having purchased all the Altar Wines made under the immediate supervision of the Rev. P. J. Kaiser in the vineyards of His Grace, Archbishop Alemany, at the Old Mission San Jose; also the Wines absolute pure wine, made with the utmost care, and guaranteed of the vintages represented.

ARPAD HARASZTHY & Co. San Francisco, Cal

[S. F. Monlior, Aug. 25, 1881.]

The vital importance of having pure altar Wine for the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is a matter which always gives the greatest concern to the Roy. Clergy, who are also aware of the difficulty experienced in procuring really pure wine by those living in remote regions from grape-producing localities. This difficulty, however, has now been entirely ovarcome, and every priest throughout the Union can rely upon procuring really pure wine for altar use through the long-established and thoroughly reliable house of Arpad Haraszthy & Co., 530 Washington Street, in this city, who have made arrangements with Rev. P. J. Kaiser to be the sole agents in this city for the sale of all the wines made at the extensive vineyards at the Old Mission, San Jose, as well as the altar wine made by Col Hooper at Sonoma. The firm of Arpid Haraszthy & Co. guarantee the perfect purity of these altar wines and are prepared to ship them in portable packages, in any quantity desired, and so put up that they will retain all their freshness during consumption. We think the enterprise of the house of Arpad Haraszthy & Co. is worthy of beingencouraged and we home the Rev. Here there the perfect purity of the total content of the house of Arpad Haraszthy & Co. is worthy of beingencouraged. Harazziby & Co. is worthy of beingencouraged, and we hope the Rev. Glergy throughout the Union will avail themselves of this excellent medium to order to secure for Divine Service one of the most essential auxiliaries to its proper celebration.

circular, we herewith annex copy of letter addressed to Rev. P. J. Kaiser by the Most Rev. Archbishop Alemany of San Francisco, Cal. ARPAD HARASZTHY & Co.

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL,
6:3 California Street.
San Prancisco, July 19th, 1881.
The bearer Rev. P. J. Kaiser, having to spend some time in the East, for motives of health, may have occasion to speak to those desirous of procuring a genuine article of pure wine.

To all such I would say, that the wines made directly by himself or under his direction, are pure and genuine.

For some years he has had under his charge for me the Diocesan-Vineyards of the Old Mission, San Jose, Cal. And these Vineyards he has quite renovated and brought to a state of considerable perfection; therefore I know the wines to be pure and genuine. I have given other letters to wine growers more or less commendatory, but none so strong as I commendatory. Our none so strong as I would desire to make this, as in no other case did I have so good means of knowing.—And whit I say for Father Kaiser's wines I would say for his Olive Oil produced at the same place.

Very Respectfully,

† JOSETH 8 ALEMANY,
Archb. of an Francisco, Cal.

Having been appointed Sole Agent for the above Celebrated Wine, I offer it in original packages, sealed, as it leaves the Vineyard, or in bottles to suit the purchaser. Its purity cannot be questioned, and it will undoubtedly be much appreciated for family and medicinal uses.

The body of Lord Cavendish was laid out for public view in the chapel at Chatsworth. The features are calm. Only one scar is visible, across the nose. The Queen tory sent a special messenger with a wreath for the coffin. The wreath was composed of yellow and white everlasting flowers, and a card was attached to it with the words in-scribed, "From Queen Victoria." A letter of condolence addressed to Lady Frederick Cavendish, accom-panies the wreath. The Interment takes place at Edensor at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon. It is expected a deputation from the Duke of Devonshire's Irish tenantry, from Cork, will participate in the funeral procession. A special train from London will convey the min-isters, who will act as pall bearers. Gladstone has written the mayor of Cork acknowledg-ing the receipt of the res-olutions passed at a meeting of citizens on Sunday. In the letter he says: "It is my firm belief that there will be but one common sentiment throughout the three kingdoms concerning the terrible assas-sination, that Ireland in particular throughout her length and breadth, will demonstrate how far she is from the slightest touch of moral complicity in so black a deed."

New York, 9.-Herald's Paris; Neither the adoption of the conciliatory policy by Gladstone nor the shocking assassination of Cavendish and Burke seems to have in any way modified the programme of the Land Leaguers. I had a long conversation with Mr. Egan this afternoon, in the course of which I repeatedly asked him whether lie individually. dividually or the League collectively would not feel it a duty to retively would not feel it a duty to repudiate and condemn the assination. Egan said that he could not see any necessity for repudiating them. No one in his senses would charge the League with them. They will be a great blow to us. Being asked what he thought of the assassination, he said: "I cannot but think they are the work of individual fanatics, who have been casual passers-by, seting on a sudden impulse. That the crime can be traced to any polithe crime can be traced to any poli-tical organization I do not believe."
